HOTEL CASE AGAINST FORMER COOK

Parker-Davenport Co. Suing Andrew S. Stevens for $6,000—

Accusation is That He Took $2,000 Worth of Provisions From Hotel—He Makes General Denial—Evidence is All In.

In the superior court here on Tuesday morning before Judge William L.
Bennett and a jury, trial was begun in the case of the Parker-Davenport Co., who are proprietors of the Vau-rehan house, and are the plaintiffs against Andrew S. Stevens, a former cook there. They are suing him for $6,000 damages on a complaint that charges that he stole $2,000 worth of provisions from the hotel during the period he was employed there, from 1908 to May 26, 1914. The statute under which the complaint is brought, provided for the recovery of treble the amount of the value of the alleged stealings.

In the complaint he is charged with theft of four chops, chickens, ham, catfish, pie, cake, etc., during this period, but the plaintiffs are not able to state any specific instances of amounts except on the 26th of May, 1914, when it is charged that he took from the hotel four club sandwiches, six lamp chops, one sirloin steak, two tender steaks, one large piece of pound cake, one cake of butter, one half a berry pie, two large apples, four ripe tomatoes, one large orange and one parcel of milk crackers, all of the value of $4.45.

In charge of the case for the Parker-Davenport Co. were Attorneys Willam H. Shields and William H.
Shields, Jr., while Attorney G. Curtis Morgan represented the defendant.

The jury chosen in the case in the following: James D. McCarthy, Norwich; Herman A. Davis, Eford; G.
P. Foster, Hallowell; R. P. Ryan, Free-David Bigelow, Colchester; Arthur P.
Turner, Lebanon; Clarence E. Maine, North Stonington; George A. Kall, Franklin; Edwin Souther, Sprague; Fred B. Kinne, Lisbon; Charles L.
Beebe, Salem; Frank P. Kinnin, Vol-untown.

Testimony Given.
August Meyer, chef at the hotel, who came there from Virginia in 1913, was the first witness called. He testified that soon after coming there he noticed that food was disappearing from the kitchen and he tried to get the owner to trace the thief he had the locks on the ice box changed. He testified that he also saw Stevens, who was taking things from the hotel kitchen.

Joseph C. Bland, one of the hotel proprietors, testified that Stevens was paid $45 per month and that some months he deposited as much as from $10 to $15 in the hotel safe. He testified that he saw Stevens taking things from the hotel kitchen.

When Stevens was recalled to the stand by his attorney, he testified that he was followed by the chef Meyer on the night he got through the punch and scared him with a knife.

Attorney William H. Shields, Jr., made the first argument for the plaintiffs. He was followed by Attorney Curtis Morgan for the defendant, who did not conclude when court adjourned for the day at 4:30.

$2,400 PLEDGED FOR ANTI-SUFFRAGIST WORK

At Annual Meeting of Connecticut Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage.

The annual meeting of the Connecticut Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage Tuesday afternoon at the rooms of the Humane society, Hartford, was preceded by a luncheon at the Hartford club for the organizing committee, members of the executive board, chairmen of branches and former members of the board. The luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and 50 were present, including a large representation from all over the state. Mrs.
Daniel A. Marquand, president of the association, presided. The guests were seated at small tables, with decorations of pink roses. There were no formal speeches, but Mrs. Marquand gave a short address on the work for the future, followed by discussion of the subject.

Among those present at the luncheon were Miss Elizabeth Ely, Lyme; Mrs.
Charles Williams, Norwich.
At the annual meeting at 2:30, reports were submitted on the general work, by the president, secretary, treasurer, and the press, legislative, literature, canvassing and city enrollment committees.

The following were elected: President, Mrs. Daniel A. Marquand, Hartford; vice presidents, Mrs. Lynde Harris, New Haven, Mrs. W. E. Glover, Fairfield, Mrs. H. H. Mason, Farmington; recording secretary, W. T. Howe, Hartford; treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Lawrence, Hartford.

Reports showed the association to be in good condition, numerically and financially, with a branch in 161 towns in the state. Miss Marjorie Dorman of New York was the principal speaker at a luncheon at which $2,400 was pledged to aid in the work of the organization.

THE CAUSE OF ANAEMIA
It is universally known that iron is a very important element of the blood, and lack of it is the cause of the run-down conditions and anaemia. It may interest our readers to know that Druggist G. G. Engler, Proprietor of the Broadway Pharmacy of this town has in Vinol a reliable, constitutional remedy for such conditions. Vinol supplies iron to the blood in its most soluble state, then there's the nourishing properties of beef peptone and the medicinal curative extracts of fresh cod livers, without oil, all dissolved in a pure native tonic wine.
That's what makes Vinol so successful in overcoming run-down and anaemic conditions.
